POYOPOYO'S OBSERVATION DIARY

On a long night stroll.
The light-hearted-ness in the begin-ning of Spring.
A freshly baked, fluffy Japanese cat
Sato Poya.
Maybe I should bake some food as well.

She wouldn't wake up even with a magnitude 7 earthquake" -by Hide
He doesn't want to wake Moe up.
How are you do-
INGG-GGG?!
So he goes through Hide's room.
Nah, he's totally fine with pollen.
It's the first storm of the spring, you know?
I accidentally screamed.
Does your father have pollen allergies?
Oh? I didn't even know.
Is what Hide told Moe.
Since it's your cat, it should wake you up. Not me!
The field's sandstorm is pretty strong.
This is why Kanto soil is...
He even wakes up upon hearing the sound of Poyo's footsteps.
Welcome back, Poyo!
You're out late.

Quite so.
